- Article report information & grading handout

0. Key points today

- Check-in on article reports
- Workshop time: Look for new article (if needed), work on your article report
  - Work on your own
  - Confer with me
  - Brainstorm/work with classmates

1. Check-in on article reports

- Is your bibliographic citation complete and accurate?
  - Don't trust Google Scholar citation information; look at your actual article
  - Use the course citations reference page for guidelines

1. Check-in on article reports

- Are there statistics in your article that you aren't familiar with, that are making the article hard to understand?
  - Drop a request in the Padlet for stats topics to cover next time
  - Use your other article for Report #1!
